

My approach was to attach camera in pa once the PA get stable in air , we can take pa above the random and static color zone and during that we can find the coordinates of that zone and store the coordinates and after releasing the pada the we can set coordinate the from the store coordinates And land the pada with soft landing .

But For Coordinates we will not get the perfect coordinates gps accuracy in +- 4-5 foots .